About Us

Footscray Community Arts is a nationally and internationally recognised arts precinct grounded in Melbourne’s West.

For almost 50 years, Footscray Community Arts has cultivated a reputation for excellence in nurturing, creating and presenting contemporary arts in collaboration with our communities of focus: First Nations, culturally and linguistically diverse, LGBTQIA+ and artists with disability.

We seamlessly combine our roles as a cultural destination, creative producer and industry development leader. We have fostered generations of artists and cultural leaders; providing a safe and creative place for diverse communities and a growing number of audiences. Footscray Community Arts carries rich cultural knowledge, ever strengthening ties with Indigenous voices through our longstanding Indigenous Advisory Group, and deep roots in activism for those who are underrepresented in mainstream culture. Our staff and board reflect who we work with, deploying best-practice methodologies in community arts and cultural development in local, national and international contemporary art contexts. We are the largest arts employer in Melbourne’s western suburbs – situated 6km west from Melbourne’s CBD in a region comprising of six local government authorities with a population representing 130 distinct ethnicities speaking over 150 languages.

Footscray Community Arts is a place for artistic vibrancy, new work, big ideas and important conversations led by our communities of focus.

Our Programs

Our programs and initiatives are long-term, high-impact and underpinned by our strategic pillars. The way we work is built on models of community and cultural development practice, collaborative leadership and, always, with First Nations first.
